

Palladium USA strengthens team with strategic additions from Dynamic Commercial Real Estate

Posted on January 18, 2024

Palladium USA, a prominent player in the multifamily real estate development sector, proudly announces three accomplished professionals from Dynamic Commercial Real Estate have joined Palladium as valuable additions to our expanding team.

Kim Parker joins Palladium as its Executive Director, bringing with her a wealth of experience and strategic vision to the firm. As the Director of Real Estate Transactions, Keith Pomykal will spearhead transaction oversight, ensuring seamless orchestration and closure. Elizabeth Deitchman, assuming the role of Manager of Land Acquisitions, will lead the charge in land sourcing and vetting, as well as providing valuable insights into Texas's Qualified Allocation Plan.

"Together, this dynamic trio forms a cohesive team that's instrumental in site selection strategy, land acquisitions, transaction oversight, and community outreach activities for Palladium making us even more successful than we have already been." said Thomas E. Huth, President and CEO of Palladium USA.

This strategic expansion reinforces Palladium's long-standing dedication to delivering transformative real estate developments and creating meaningful communities for the future.
